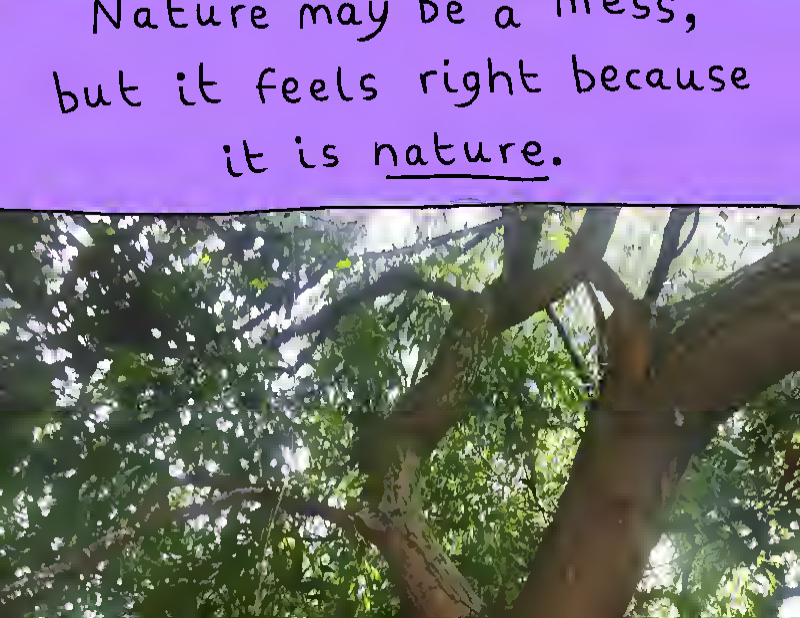
hello
rubbish

Nature may be a mess, but it feels right because it is nature.



I do not relate to this.
I feel like a weird
mish-mash of features

out of place,
wherever I go.

But I do relate to this.

It is a mess.

Full of objects out of place

Office DEPOT

and I am fond of weird out-of-place things.

This place is like a deconstructed house

-it even has a door.

I want to live in there

where I belong.
